12. 5-year Review Date 2017

Many previous course outlines have SLOs and what are now called Competencies/Concepts/Issues/Skills combined in question number 6. In this form in number 15: SLOs are considered to be over arching "what the student will be able to do in the rest of life" type statements. In number 16: Competencies/Concepts/Issues/Skills are considered to be the more specific steps by which the SLOs are achieved.

15. Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs). List one to four inclusive SLOs.

Use roman numerals (I., II., III.) to designate SLOs..

On successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- I. interpret historical foundations of evidentiary rules
- II. differentiate witness testimony, circumstantial, and documentary evidence
- III. identify relevant aspects of criminal evidence to the administration of justice
- IV.

16. Competencies/Concepts/Issues/Skills. Use lower case letters (a., b....zz) to designate competencies/concepts/issues/skills..

On successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- a. discuss historical foundations of rules of evidence
- b. identify significant, landmark evidence case law decisions
- c. interpret case development in national and Hawai'i procedural law
- d. present case briefs of landmark evidence cases
- e. define and apply a broad range of evidentiary law concepts and terms
