

Objective B1.1 Strategic Plan Team Report 2004-2005

B.1.1 Develop graduates who can learn new things, think critically, behave ethically and adapt to change.

1. Team Members:

- Kate Acks
- Doris Casey
- Robyn Klein, Leader
- Carol Petith Zbiciak
- Renee Riley
- Cheech Shurilla
- Jim White
- Juli Umetsu (ex officio member)

2. No. of meetings held: 3

3. Major accomplishments: bullets, no narrative

- Assessed the Nursing Program's ethics training and determined it to be one extremely valuable way to teach ethics in the workplace
- Discussed ways in which people learn
- Discussed the value of reviewing course outlines to determine which courses rate learning new things, thinking critically, behaving ethically and adapting to change as a 2 or 3
- Explored the value of surveying instructors via email regarding how they currently teach these areas in their course or program
- Explored the value of determining where the campus is in requiring LSK 106 as a first semester course for all students
- Discussed the possibility of putting short ethical blurbs on the home page as mini workshops
- Discussed checking with TIC to see what training that committee has done/will do/might do in the areas covered in this objective
- Explored the possibility of attending program meetings/meeting with program coordinators to see what is currently covered pertaining to this objective

4. Projects for Spring 05: bullets, no narrative

- Complete some of the items in #3 Status: No action taken

5. Help needed in completing projects: bullets, no narrative

- The semester seemed to get away from me with regard to acting on any of the items in #3 above. I plan to schedule a team meeting early in the Fall semester to prioritize the tasks and to determine which member will be responsible for what